

What to Bring

Doc Warner's provides much of what you need for your trip. In fact, personal clothing is all you need to bring. The list below indicates items you may want to bring.

Personal Item List:

- Packing too much is a common occurrence for our guests. Excess baggage charges can be eliminated if you will pack into a single carryon. Your fish will be packed into boxes, which you can check on your return.

- The following list will help you know what and how much to pack.

3 Changes of clothes (coin-op laundry available)	Socks
*Shirts, sweatshirts, vest (layering will keep you the warmest)	Medicines
Jeans	Chargers for electronics
*Jacket (medium weight)	*Waterproof gloves
Underclothing	*Ball cap or *beanie
Toiletries (shampoo & soap are provided)	Sneakers
Small first aid kit	Sunglasses
Fly fishing equipment if desired	*Sunscreen
 Good rain gear and boots	*Lip balm
Thermals if you get cold easily

* Can be purchased at the lodge.  Can be rented at the lodge.

Cell Phones:

- Between the lodge and your home: The best way to communicate between your home and the lodge is via your own cell phone. AT&T, Verizon and other providers work in most areas. Cell service is intermittent because of our remote location.
- Between your boat and the lodge: Texting is the best way to communicate between your boat and the lodge. Texts are often delayed a few minutes and pictures an hour or more.

Fly Fishing Gear:

- Doc Warner's does not provide fly fishing gear. If you want to bring your own, we recommend the following for both fresh water and salt water fly fishing:
 - Rod: 7-10 weight
 - Reel High capacity 8.5 - 9.0
 - Backing: 30 pound ultra thin
 - Line: Taper floating and monoclear saltwater or freshwater, or sink tip saltwater line.
 - Leader & Tippet: Triangle taper fluorocarbon leader, tipped in 3X-0X
 - Flies: Alevin, Blue Smolt, White Wooly Bugger, Egg Sucking Leaches, Flash Fly, Hot Pink Sparkle Shrimp, Chartreuse Everglow Fly, Gold Comet, Lefty's Deceiver, Tarpon Fly, Clouser Minnow, Skyomish Sunrise. Doc's has a limited supply of flies at the store.
